

Alena Munkova With Her Husband Jiri Munk And An Artist At A Book Launch

This is a photo with my husband, Jiri Munk, at the launch of a book about Staflik and Spageta. Sitting to the left of me is the book's artist, Zdenek Smetana. We were there together, the artist and two authors. The photograph is from 2005, it's already the second volume. The launch took place in Prague, in Luxor, in that large bookstore up at the top of Wenceslaus Square, where these book launches take place. There was also an autograph session.
