Statue "Philosopher" (wood) By Grigoriy Husid

This is "Philosopher" (wood) by Grigoriy Husid. This picture was taken in 1998 in Kiev. Marina left her little sickly son. Danichka has cerebral palsy. He is in Czechia now with his father. They moved to live there, as Danil needs medical care for a lifetime. He can move and walk. He can draw, too. Last year I organized an exhibition and displayed works of the three Husids: my daughter's, my grandson's and my own works.
