

Deren Ejnesman

This photo could have been taken very recently: in the 2000s. Perhaps two or three years ago... I really don't remember, but I know it's recent. This photo was taken in Canada, for sure. This is my grandson Deren. He's Morys's son. Morys has a good job, I'm very happy for him, and very proud of him. He's an owner of a store. It's an interior decorations store. My elder son Morys has two more children: Cora, and Tina.
