

REFLECTIONS ON THE KALEF MOVIE

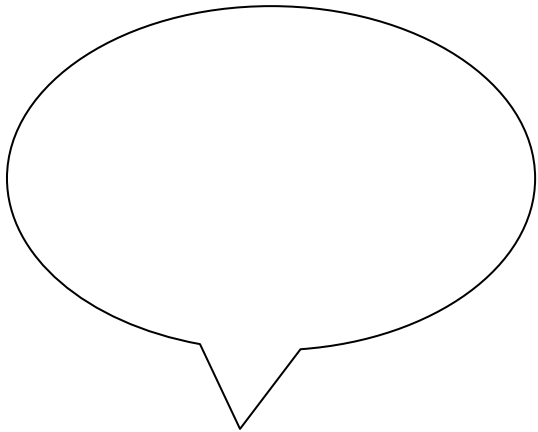

I was expecting to see

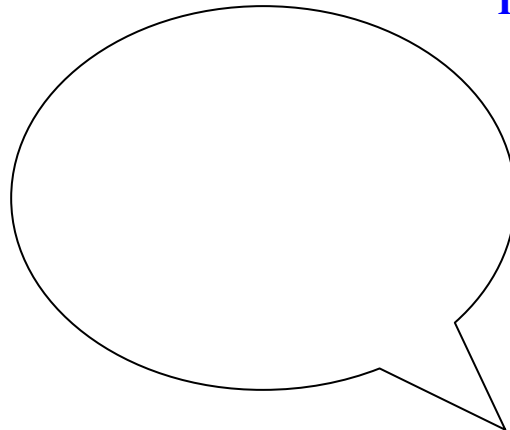

I would do the same

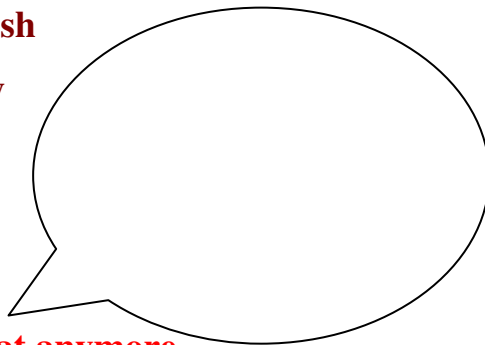

I wouldn't be able to do that

That's similar to how Jewish community lives in Turkey

That changed my perspective on life

We don't live like that anymore

I (wish I) had a relationship like that

Sentences

My mother converted to Judaism and changed her name.*

They moved into the Jewish section of Belgrade.*

The whole family worked together in three textile stores.*

Granma was left to run a business and a son to raise.*

We had Jewish youth clubs.*

I was very happy as a girl.*

My cousins were forced to clear the rubble.*

Mom promised dad to take us to safety.*

A Catholic priest, Father Tumpej, helped us by taking us in into his monastery.*

We changed our names.*

We had a multi-ethnic household.*

Dad in a wheelchair always came with us everywhere.*

We had a big family.*

The Jewish community was the center of everything.*

We sang to chase away the hunger and the fear.*

We returned home- to a tiny portion of our home.*

We journeyed so that Father Tumpej could marry us.*

Breda gave money to Father Tumpej to help others.*

Father Tumpej was honored with the Righteous Gentile award.*

Breda became a famous mezzo-soprano.*