

Irena Wygodzka In The Tatras

This is a picture of me, Irena Wygodzka, taken in 1958 in the Polish Mountains, in Dolina Koscieliska.

There is a story connected with this picture. My father once took a picture of me on a rock in Dolina Koscieliska.

It was in 1936 in Zakopane. I had that picture with me throughout the war, it was one of the few keepsakes I had.

After many years I really wanted to find that rock and I did. I had a picture taken in the same place, it was in 1958. Father wasn't there any longer, but the picture has remained and so has the rock.
