

Buena And Isaak Peso

In this photo you can see my father's older sister Buena Peso and her husband Isaak.

They got married in 1914 in Monastir and had three children.

My father's family lived in Monastir until around 1914 and then the parents Lea and David Pardo along with four of their five children moved to Thessalonica.

Buena and Isaak left for South America soon after their wedding and lived all their lives in Chile.
