

Mazal Asael's Maternal Relatives

This is a photo from the visit of my mother's cousin from Serbia, taken in the 1930s in the yard of Aunt Mazal's house at 9 Bregalnitza Street in Sofia. My mother's cousin emigrated to France in 1933. Aunt Blanka (at left) and Aunt Mazal are crouching in the front, I am on the left in the second row, Aunt Mazal's daughter Vita is next, and next to her are my mother Delicia, aunt Bucha and grandfather Bohor. In the back row are Aunt Bucha's son Moritz, Uncle Marko, Aunt Mazal's husband Leon, our cousin from France, and aunt Bucha's husband Naftali.
