

Marko And Dora Benvinisti

This is my uncle Rahamin Benvinisti's oldest son, Marko and his first wife Dora in Plovidiv in 1940. Rahamin was my father's oldest brother. My grandma Perla Benvinisti lived with him. According to our tradition, the oldest son is the one who has to take care of his mother. My uncle's whole family left for Israel in 1948. This photograph was sent especially to my mother and father by their nephews.
