

Liezer Iel, His Wife Ester Iel And Their Son

This is a photo of my uncle Liezer Iel, his wife Ester and their younger son, taken in America in 1934. Liezer was my mother's youngest brother. He left for the States in 1931 with his family and never came back to Bulgaria. He settled in Chicago. Unfortunately I haven't kept in touch with my cousin and I don't remember his name. The picture was sent to my parents in Plovdiv by post.
