

The Wedding Of Kati And Martin Perlmutter

This is a picture of the wedding of my mother's sister Kati Perlmutter, nee Neumannova. My aunt is the fourth from right standing. The photo was taken in Kosice in 1920. She got married to Martin Perlmutter. At the beginning of World War II she was deported. She died in Bergen-Belsen. Her husband Martin didn't survive the Holocaust either. He died in some other concentration camp, but I don't know which one.
