

Albertos Beraha's Cousin In The Army

During my army service I was with a distant relative from the Saltiel side, he was from my maternal grandmother's side.

This is him in the picture. It was taken in Athens in the 1950s.

He was from Kavala; and as I said before, we were in the army together.

Back then the Americans would accept everyone who came with Joint and would take care of him

So he went to the USA and we exchanged a few letters but then the contact broke off.
