

Jewish Reception At The Mediterrane Hotel

This is in one of the venues where the several Jewish Cultural Clubs would have their receptions.

It is at the famous hotel Mediterrane, which was brought down in a night as it was in a really bad state.

It was situated on the beach and it used to be very elegant and grand; the community of Thessaloniki would use it for the big celebrations.