

Magdalena Berger's Mother-In-Law Margita Berger With Peasants

My mother-in-law Margita Berger is pictured in the center with her son Ivan, later my husband. The picture was taken on the farm of the Berger family in the village of Torda in Banat, Serbia, probably in the summer of 1930. The other people in the picture are villagers who worked for the Bergers.