

Leib Bograd's Children

These are the children of my grandfather's younger brother Leib Bograd. He moved to the USA in 1916.

Unfortunately, I don't know his children's names. I only know his daughter Leya, standing on the right in this photo.

This photograph was taken in the USA in 1929. My father kept this photograph.

Leib Bograd moved to the USA before the revolution of 1917. He died there. He had five children. I only know about his daughter, Leya, born in the USA in 1920.

We met in the 1990s. Though I knew about her before, we couldn't communicate since this wasn't allowed in the former USSR and was punishable. We met, when I visited the USA, and she visited me in Moscow.
