

Maks Almozlino And Family

This photo was taken in Belgrade in 1946. These are the Almozlinos, the family of the brother of Lenka Kalef, my granduncle Jakov Kalef's wife. His name was Maks. He met his wife, Alisa, in a camp in Italy. They married and had two children, Sasa and Dorica. They went to Israel. Alisa was also from Yugoslavia.

On the back it says: "Dear Ms. Tonki, Tilkica and Ela, a small memento from Sasica, Dorica, Maks and Alisa"

May 1946, Belgrade

They never wrote to us again.
