

Back Of Photo Of Jakov Kalef Wearing A Fez

This is the back of the photo of my granduncle, Jakov Kalef, in Carigrad where he served in the military. The picture was taken in 1918. It reads: "For long-lasting memory to my dear and beloved wife Lenka from your husband Jakov M. Kalef Carigrad 12 May 1918." [Editor's Note: it looks like the words "For the European War" were added to this at some later point. This refers to WWI.]
