

Jozsef Faludi's Paternal Aunt's Daughter Lili Matyas

This is Aunt Regina, my father's sister's daughter. She was my sister's age. Aunt Regina was born around 1890 in Cracow, Poland. My paternal grandfather came from Cracow to Hungary, and he found work in Kiskoros. Regina had two husbands. Lili is from the second marriage. The family was very poor and they were supported by the community. They also lived in Kiskoros. Regina and her second husband died in the Holocaust. Lili survived. She married in Kiskoros and then emigrated with her husband to the US. They have three children, all of whom live in America. I think she is still alive. She has a brother in America who emigrated before the war. He became a glass merchant and is quite rich.
