

The Wedding Of Jozsef Faludi's Cousin Aranka Fogler

This is the wedding of my cousin Aranka in 1943 or 1944. She was one of the daughters of my father's brother Izidor who lived in Soltvadkert. He had 8 children. Izidor was a watch maker and had his own workshop. Aranka made aliya before the war and she got married in Palestine. Her husband Sandor was a Hungarian Jew, but they met in Palestine. Aranka worked in my aunt Rozsi's salon, the Salon Rachel. She was a dress maker. They had four children.
