

Sami Fiul's Aunt, Mina

In this photo you can see one of my father's, Bernard Fiul's sisters, Mina. She is the second from left in this photo, and on the right side there is her husband, a Jew, but I don't remember his name. All I know is that her husband was deported to Transnistria, and that he died there, in 1942, in Moghilev. The woman next to her might be another sister, I don't know. Mina was a housewife and she had a daughter, but I don't recall her name either.
