

Piroska Goldberger At Lake Balaton

This is a cousin of my father; she died during the Holocaust. Her name was Piroska Goldberger. They lived in Gyongyos but the photo was taken in Balatonlelle at the beginning of the 1930s. Her husband had vineyards and a wine cellar and she must have been a housewife. Everybody from the family died with the exception of their daughter, Olga Fulop, who lives in Sydney, Australia, today.
