

A large group photograph of the Hartomaz Club members, posing in front of a wooden building. The group consists of many young men and a few women, arranged in several rows. A sign in the front center reads "HARTOMAZ Club".

In this photo you can see the cartonnage workshop at the Novaky labor camp. I think that in 1943 a delegation from Bratislava came, and this photo was taken on that occasion. My brother was employed in the workshop as a cardboard maker, as we're from a book-printing family. They made him assistant manager of the workshop. My brother Ervin is in the first row, fourth from the left, in the middle of the second row, wearing glasses, is the workshop manager Mr. Werner with his wife. Second from the left is Mr. Bienenstock, a baker from Prievidza. The photograph was taken by the photo workshop of the Novaky concentration camp.
