

Mark Rosner With His Family

This is Mark Rosner, the husband of my sister-in-law, Iren. He is the soldier in the middle. Next to him, (on the right) is his son Endre, (on the left) is his daughter Ibi. The girl in the front is my daughter Judit. This picture must have been taken in 1938 in Budapest. The Rosners had a shoe accessory shop in Baross Street. They also sold leather. This was a crummy, poky den. It was almost opposite their house. They had a two room flat, but the house itself wasn't very elegant. Just my brother-in law and Iren worked in the shop. Their son, Endre was born in 1927; I don't know what he did. Ibi worked in an office somewhere, but I don't know who for. She was deported from the KISOK field- she was buried in Germany. Somebody sent her (Iren) a picture of her grave. Her grave was taken care of for a while. Her son escaped from forced labor somewhere, and the Russians caught him and took him to Russia. We know nothing about him - where and when he died. Iren was in hiding with her husband. After the war, she worked in a food store, later she worked in an office for a long time, until she was about 90. She was 101 years old, when she died in 2002. In the retirement home, there was a big celebration on her 100th birthday. Both of my sisters-in-law were buried in the Jewish cemetery in a common grave
