

Matilda Israel And Her Husband Salvator Israel In The USA

This is me (first from left, standing) and my husband Salvator Israel (first from right, sitting) in Los Angeles in the 1980s. The other people are Elisabeth Teller (nee Israel) - my husband Salvator's sister and her husband Karl Teller. The children are their grandchildren. I have traveled a lot with my husband: we have been almost everywhere in Europe, we also visited his sister Elizabeth in the USA. She had sent us an invitation and bought us airplane tickets. I often accompanied my husband to conferences on the history of medicine. My husband had five sisters - Rashel, Sarika, Rene, Elizabeth and Hanika.
