

The Family Of Oro Menahem

This is a picture of the family of my mother-in-law Oro Menahem. The photo was taken in the 1910s in Pleven. It shows her parents and brothers. My husband's maternal grandfather Menahem and his grandmother Rahel are sitting in the front. Her brother Haim is the first from the left standing, next to him are Benzion, Mois, Eliezer and David. My husband's maternal grandfather came to Bulgaria from Serbia and he married in the town of Pleven - his wife was from there. Haim went to live in France and he had a family and two children there. My husband's maternal grandfather was a trader. Their family was very intelligent and my husband's grandmother worked at two places so that they could send their sons to study abroad. She worked in a studio for mattresses in the winter and in a dairy in the summer.
