

Roza Kolevska's Grandchildren

This is a picture of my four grandchildren, taken in Sofia in 2001. My older daughter Natasha has a daughter, Bozhana (second from right) and a son, Valentin (first from right), while the younger one, Bisserka has a daughter, Ana-Maria (first from left) and a son, Stefan (the little boy). They all are very smart kids. My oldest granddaughter lives abroad. The youngest grandchild, Stefcho [a diminutive name from Stefan] studies in the Jewish school. And I have raised Ana-Maria almost by myself.
