

Marika Krpez's Grandfather Mor Deutsch With Her Father Lazar Deutsch And Aunt Klara Deutsch

The photograph was sent as a card in October 1913 to Sandor Holtzer, my grandmother Regina's brother. In the picture is my grandfather Mor Deutsch with his two children: with the right arm he is hugging his daughter Klara and in his left arm is my father Lazar. My grandfather was born in 1851. He worked as a producer of soda water. His first wife died. Later, he married Regina Holtzer, who was 25 years younger than him, in 1905. This was Grandfather's second marriage. With Regina he had two children: Lazar, born in 1906, and Klara, born in 1907. From his first marriage, he had a daughter, Serena, who married in 1930 and moved to Budapest. Grandfather died in Subotica in 1923.
