

Yvette Beza As A Child At Carnival

This is a photograph of my wife, Yvette Leon, nee Beza, when she was eight years old, taken at Carnival 1943 in Thessaloniki during the German occupation. This photograph was taken by a German soldier. It was given to us by Mrs. Katina Mixoudi. My wife is the fourth from right to left. On the back is written: Carnival 1943. My wife Yvette, nee Beza, was born in 1935 in Thessaloniki. Although her mother tongue was Ladino, we are talking in Greek at home. She studied at Anatolia College in Thessaloniki. Her father was called Maurice Beza, her mother Sarina, and she has a brother, Mimis Beza.
