That's me, two years old. The photo was taken in Bratislava in 1912. I am an old Bratislava citizen. I was born in this city in 1910 and I still live here. My parents were also born in Bratislava, and so were my grandparents. I was born five years after my parents got married. They lived first on Grosslingova Street, which was lined with very nice houses. That's where I was born. Even my birth certificate says Grosslingova 15.
