

Erna Lustigová

This picture was taken in 1903, and shows my mother, back then still Erna Grün, most likely with her nanny. My mother, Erna Lustigová, was born in 1899. In Horná Poruba, my grandfather had fields rented, and had a store and house there. Horná Poruba seemed a village to him, the children were growing, and so still during the time of Austro-Hungary, he bought land in what today is Hungary. Well, and when the monarchy fell apart, he lost them. The first few children ? Hugo, Margit, Laci [Ladislav], Minko, Erna ? my mother and Mariska [Mária] were born there. The rest in Trnava.
