

Renee Molho With Her Schoolmates

This is a picture taken on the stairs of our school, the American School of Thessaloniki, or Anatolia College, before our graduation in 1938. This is the whole class with the teacher. I'm the second from the right in the second row. From the Jewish girls only Rosa Cohen is still alive. She went to Athens and married a certain Abravanel. All the rest died in the concentration camps. As for the rest of my schoolmates who were not Jewish, most of them live here in Thessaloniki and we see each other sometimes.
