

Nina Molho And Magdalini Mitziliotis

This is a picture of my daughter Nina Molho who went to the village of Glossa on Skopelos to find Magdalini Mitziliotis, the wife of Giorgos Mitziliotis. The photo was taken in Magdalini's house in the summer of 1990. They seem to be having a good time laughing together. Giorgos Mitziliotis was the mayor of the village during the war and he rescued 14 persons of the Leon family during the war and he did his best to keep the family together and to provide them with shelter and food and whatever they needed. Amongst them was my husband Solon Molho.
