

Renee Molho's Traveling Permit

Those are my official permissions that were required to go to Palestine. There is one in Turkish, issued in Izmir on 25th May 1944. There is one seen at the British Consulate general of Izmir, permitting passage from Syria, and there is a permission to remain permanently in Palestine, issued by the Government of Palestine, Department of Immigration, on 6th June 1944.