

Gabor Paneth's Aunt Sari Bergsmann And Mother Margit Paneth

My mother and her sister Sari in the City Park on Margaret Island. They two sisters were very close to each other in their whole lives. From time to time they lived in the same flat. Sari graduated from a commercial highschool and worked as an arts administrator in OMIKE, the Hungarian Israelite Cultural Association. She never married. She survived the war in a protected house with me and my parents, using the false Schutzpass that I got ahold of for the whole family.
