

Postcard To Adolf Paneth, Gabor Paneth's Grandfather

This is a letter that one of his sons who lived in Budapest sent to my grandfather a few months before his death. They wrote to each other in Yiddish, but this wasn't a pure Yiddish, but some mishmash of a language. I don't know if any of them really spoke Yiddish.