

Teodor Pasternak And Friends

This picture was taken in 1922 in Presov, at the place of the future swimming pool. My father Teodor Pasternak is the first from left in the first row. The Jewish youth used to meet there and a Jewish association, Fortuna, was established there. Young people organized various trips and social events.