

Siegfried, Jozef And Max Steiner

These are three of the Steiner brothers as soldiers in World War I. For some military achievements they were awarded some medals, which can be seen on the photo. The first from the left is doctor Siegfried Steiner. The second one is Jozef Steiner, my father, who was awarded the medal and the third one is Max Steiner, who later, along with my father, was the owner of the Steiner bookshop.