

Rosa Rosenstein With Her Siblings Betty Chaim, Erna Goldstein, Cilly Brandstetter And Arthur Braw

This photo was taken in Berlin in 1919. Here you can see me with my siblings: Betty Chaim, Erna Goldstein, Cilly Brandstetter [all nee Braw] und Arthur Braw. All of us five siblings are very close. Every one of us has a different character, but we were never cross at one another. Sure, we all had different opinions, but we never really had a row with each other. And that only happens in few families.