

Boris And Tamara Rubenstein With Friends

This is photo of my wife Tamara, son Lev, sister Sofja and his daughter Anna. My sister Sophia was born in 1947. In 1958 Mum's second husband died, and Mum with my sister Sophia moved to Estonia. Here they lived in our family. Mum did not work and helped us keep house. After leaving school Sophia entered Tartu university, the philological faculty, and had successfully finished it. Upon graduation from university she worked for a short period as a teacher of literature, and then got a job in the local newspaper, where she works till now as a correspondent. She has a daughter - Anna. Her daughter is grown up now and two years ago Sophia became a happy grandmother. Daughter presented her twins, the two girls - Masha and Dasha. She lives in Tallinn (Estonia).
