Paulina Scheinfeld As A Bride

This is my mother's sister Paulina Scheinfeld, nee Shaim, as a bride. The photo was taken in lasi in the 1930s. My mother, Clara, Jewish name Haia Hinda, was born in lasi, in the house on Aron Voda Street, around 1902. She had three younger sisters. Paulina, my mother's second sister, was born in 1907 in lasi. She was a housewife. Her husband's name was Strul; he was a hakham and did ritual slaughters, especially with poultry. They had a son, Avram, born in lasi in 1932, who currently lives in Germany, and is a light industry engineer. He's married and has a son who's a surgeon. Paulina died in 1993 in Rehovot, Israel.
