

Yomtov And Rebecca Geron

This is a photo of my husband's parents Yomtov and Rebecca Geron, nee Asher. It was taken in Sliven in 1937. My husband's father was a textile dealer and his mother was a housewife. Their house in Sliven was close to ours and our families knew each other. My husband's father was a very ethical person. Everybody respected him for his nice character. He often helped people in need.
