Mihail Mihaylov

This is a photo of my father Mihail Mihaylov after he came back from the front in the Balkan War in 1915. He turned around to show what remained from his overcoat. During the war a piece of shrapnel also tore a part of his ear. The photo was taken in Sliven.