

Korina Solomonova With Relatives

This is a photo taken during one of my visits to Sofia in 1939. I am the first from the left. Next to me is Paulina, the daughter of my uncle Bohor Kohen, next to her is my Uncle Leon Kohen and in front of him is his daughter Lili. In front of my cousin Paulina is her small child Shery. When I was young, we traveled very often to Sofia to visit my mother's relatives. At that time I was still a student. I stayed in the house of my uncle Leon.
