

Ignac Brody With Class-Mates

These are high school graduates, probably with their teacher, photographed in Bratislava, on 25th June 1923. The fourth standing from the left is Ignac Brody, the brother of my grandmother. He worked as a lawyer and left for Great Britain. He was famous for his musical talent, he played the violin very well.