

Feiga Tregerene And Her Granddaughter Elena Rozenburgene

This is me, Feiga Tregerene, and my granddaughter Elena Rozenburgene. My husband took this photo, when we were having a walk not far from our home in Zarasai in 1984. My daughter Chaya graduated from the Faculty of Cybernetics of Kaunas Polytechnic College. She married Motl Rozenburg, a talented engineer. This was a pre-arranged marriage, but my daughter and her husband are happy. She has two children: son Elan, born in 1977, and daughter Elena, born in 1983. Elena has finished medical college this year. She wants to continue her education to acquire her Master of Medicine degree.
