

Agnesa Urbanova With Her Father, Ludovit Sandor

This is a photo of me when I was around a year and a half or two years old, together with my father. The photograph is from 1936 or 1937. My father's name was Ludovit Sandor. He was an amazing person, whom everyone loved, whom everyone who knew him recalls still to this day. He was a beautiful man and very good. Tall, dark, with a mustache. My father owned an electronics store with a friend of his; it was called Audion and was in Liptovsky Mikulas, on the square. They sold radios and things like that. My mother was at home. My parents' financial situation was good. They weren't millionaires, of course. They had everything, went on vacations, on a honeymoon and so on. They used to go to Luhacovice, as far as I know, and for their honeymoon they went to Abbazia. Back then people didn't go abroad that much. They went on vacations by themselves. I was born on 13th July 1935. I was an only child.
