

Beno Ruso's Sister-In-Law Dora Ruso

Dora was born the same year as Roza and worked as a clerk. She married my older brother Dario on the same day that Roza and I married. She wanted to go to Israel because her brother was there. She and her brother were very close, inseparable. So, Dario, Dora and their two children went to Israel. Their children, Salina and Isak, were born in Skopje but live in Israel. Neither of them married or have children. My brother died in Israel; but Dora is still alive.
