

Judita Jovanovic's Father Zoltan Biro With Fellow Cadets

My father with fellow cadets. Zoltan is the second person from the right. The picture was taken in the dining room of the military school for reserve officers of the Yugoslav Royal Army, in Sarajevo in 1935.

He finished his law degree in Belgrade and then served in the Yugoslav Army from 1934 to 1935. His service included completing an officers' training course. Upon the completion of his army service, he began his apprenticeship with a Belgrade law firm.
