My mother's name was Sura, daughter of Buium [Sura bat Buium] - my grandfather's name was Buium. That's how they named children in those days. And the family name was Klein. She could read and write Romanian, she could even read Jewish [Yiddish], but I don't know about the rest [, what her studies were]. She was a very cheerful, kind-hearted person. She helped others very much. People used to go begging in those days. There were various older Jewish women who would come by our house and ask for alms. And my mother would always give to others from the little that she had. She was a very kind woman, and a very good housewife - all her grandchildren loved her. She cooked 100% kosher. She was a religious person. She died in 1962, she is buried at the Jewish cemetery in Botosani.
