

Petr Weber's Aunts

This is a photograph of the Königsberg sisters, but my mother, Lola, isn't among them. She was the oldest of them all, and so basically took care of them. I unfortunately don't know where and when this photo was taken. From left to right, they are: Dina, Bracha in front, Esther in the back, Toshka and Lea.

Toshka and Esther moved to what was back then the Palestine still during pre-war times, probably around 1935, and thus survived and became this bridge between me and my past. They lived in Tel Aviv. So from the entire Königsberg family, only these three survived, Toshka, Esther and Uncle Shlomo. My mother and her other sisters, by this I mean Dina, Lea, Bracha and another brother David, all those died during World War II.
