

Golda Gutner 's Uncle, Brother Of Her Mother, Meishke Lurye

My uncle, brother of my mother, Meishke Lurye. Beginning of the 20th century; Konotop. Unfortunately, Meishko was a sportsman and died at the age of 37 because of a heart disease. Then Avram and Shlemka began to provide for his family (two daughters and wife Beilya). Soon, Avram got sick with leukemia. He died either in 1932 or 1933. He left son Boris (named in honor of grandfather), daughter Fruma (named in honor of grandmother), and the wife. So, Shlemka alone provided for his own family and the families of his brothers.
